

Adult Story Time Program Plan

Program: How Things Work: Trains

Programmer: Tatiana Poliakevitch

Date: January 2007

Theme: Trains, Canadian Railway, Engines

Opening: PPT presentation: How Things Work: Trains

Presentation Outline:

How Things Work: Trains

January 2007

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Before CN 1850s-1919

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Famous Trains

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Famous Trains

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Famous Trains

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Famous Trains

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Passenger Services

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Passenger Services

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Passenger Services

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Passenger Services

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Moving Goods

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Moving Goods

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Moving Goods

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Moving Goods

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Modern Trains

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Modern Trains

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Modern Trains

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Passenger Services

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Passenger Services

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Passenger Services

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Railway Operations

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Railway Operations

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Railway Operations

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Moving Goods

Canada Science and Technology Museum: Moving Goods

Modern Trains: Germany

Modern Trains: England

Modern Trains: Europe

Modern Trains: Singapore

Modern Trains: Russia

Modern Trains: Japan

Modern Trains: Australia

Canadian Science and Technology Museum

<http://www.sciencetech.technomuses.ca/>

Books Read:

Trains

Schaefer, Lola M

Mega book of trains: discover the most amazing locos on earth!

Gibbs, Lynne

Activities: The presentation should be interactive accompanied by a discussion with the audience after each slide about the image on a slide.

Closing: Discussing the most interesting train with the program participants.