

LIBRARY ENVIRONMENT

Red Deer Public Library is committed to providing an environment free from harassment.

Our customers and staff expect and deserve a clean, pleasant, quiet and safe environment. Behaviour that damages this environment may subject the individual(s) involved to exclusion from library premises. Individuals who exhibit behaviour damaging to the library environment may be excluded from library premises for extended periods of time, up to permanent exclusion.

Inappropriate behaviour can result in police involvement and/or criminal charges being laid.

