

This database is an organized collection of international newspapers that can be accessed and read electronically. With Press Display you have access to close to 450 newspapers from around the world, in the language in which they are published. The newspapers are updated on a daily basis.

Step 1

In Internet Explorer open the Red Deer Public Library Web site – www.rdpl.org

Step 2

Click on “Research & Homework Help”

Step 3

Scroll down the page to this link:

NewsPaper Direct Press Display

In Library | From Home (Valid RDPL Card required for home access)

With Press Display you have access to close to 450 newspapers from around the world, in the language in which they are published. The newspapers are updated on a daily basis. A list of the newspapers available in the database is available here.

Step 4

If you are at home, click on “From Home” link. You will see this message:

Licensed Databases

A valid library card from you is required to access these resources.

Please enter your barcode:

tip: 13 or 14 digits with no spaces

Cancel

Type your library card number in the box.

Step 5

Step 6

Select the title of a newspaper you would like to read and/or listen to. You can make a selection by language, by country or alphabetically.

- ×
- By Country ▶
- By Language ▶
- Alphabetically

Step 7

Practically all the North American newspapers are available in an audio format as well. Now put the cursor on an article you would like to listen to until you would see this icon:

Click and listen to the article.