

PRESS RELEASE
March 31, 2004

NATIONAL POETRY MONTH AT RED DEER PUBLIC LIBRARY!

Celebrate with a slate of cool poetry and music events with artists from across Canada and beyond:

SPRING FLING:

MUSICIANS & THEIR MUSES

Chamber Music Concert

Sunday, April 4—2:30 p.m.

Snell Auditorium

Downtown Branch, Red Deer Public Library

An afternoon of music with Cheryl Cooney and Anita Bhadresa. $10 tickets available at the door, at the Dawe Branch, and at the Circulation Desk, Downtown Branch, Red Deer Public Library.

SUE MACLEOD:

Halifax Poet Laureate

Poetry Reading

Thursday, April 8—7:00 p.m.

Snell Auditorium

Downtown Branch, Red Deer Public Library

Sue MacLeod has published The Language of Rain, and That Singing You Hear at the Edges. Sue once won a fellowship to write for a month in a Scottish Castle!

Wine and cheese. Free Admission. Everyone is welcome.

QUARTET 2004:

No Holds Barred Poetry!

Thursday, April 22—7:00 p.m.

Snell Auditorium

Downtown Branch, Red Deer Public Library

Frontenac House does it again with a line-up of unruly, passionate and unpredictable poets:

Kevin Irie—Toronto, ON : Angel Blood: The Tess Poems

J. Fisher—Victoria, BC : Death Day Erection

Bob Stallworthy—Calgary, AB : Optics

Lisa Pasold—Paris, FRANCE : Weave

Join us for wine and cheese, and great giveaways. Free admission. Everyone is welcome.