At the second in Red Deer Public Library and Mountain View Connections Spring Concert Series, Charles Foreman performs four piano sonatas by Ludwig van Beethoven.

Foreman made his debut in 1972 with the Chicago Civic Orchestra. Since then, he has won prizes in Canadian and U.S. piano competitions, received two Canada Council grants for study and performance in Europe, performed numerous times with orchestras in North America (including seven repeat engagements with the Calgary Philharmonic), and played over four hundred solo and chamber recitals in Austria, Belgium, Germany, the Netherlands, Switzerland, Canada, and the U.S. He has been equally praised for his superb musicianship, his formidable technique, his vast repertoire, and his imaginative programming.

Foreman's discography will include four solo albums and three duo albums (with violinist Edmond Agopian, baritone Donald Bell and saxophonist Jeremy Brown) by early 2003. In addition, Foreman has appeared as both artist and host on radio and television stations in the U.S., Canada, and Europe.

Tickets available at the door: $15; $10 for senior citizens and students.
