What are you agreeing to when you sign this form?

A guide for parents and guardians

The form your child has asked you to sign is an important LEGAL agreement.

Your signature ensures Red Deer Public Library that the items your child borrows will be returned to us on time without damage.

As the applicant is under the legal age of majority in Canada, you are responsible for them.

If items should be late, damaged or fail to be returned you will be billed for the charges and are responsible to pay any balance owing.

We ask that you inform us of any changes to the registration information or if the child is no longer under your care or supervision.

Please note:

children are required to have parental permission only once, and the card is active until their 18th birthday.

If at anytime you wish to no longer be responsible for this card, call Member Services at 403-346-4576.

You can check what is signed out and the status of the card at any time. Just call us and provide us with the card number or check online at www.rdpl.org.

Internet Use Agreement

1. Workstations will provide unfiltered Internet access.
2. Workstations in children's areas will guide users to age appropriate material.
3. As with all library materials, parents or guardians are responsible for materials accessed by minors. Minors must have permission from parents or guardians before using research workstations.
4. All members of the public will have access to workstations at no charge.
5. Library staff may restrict non-research related use. These uses may include but are not limited to chat groups, email, games and other electronic services.

6. Workstations are designed for use by one person at a time.

7. Departments determine time limits for workstation use. During peak service periods customers may be asked to further limit search time.

8. RDPL staff will develop links in conjunction with our collection development policy. Providing links by staff does not endorse the accuracy of the sites.

9. Red Deer Public Library is committed to providing an environment free from harassment. Customers must not display on screens and/or printers materials which may be objectionable.

10. The workstations must be used in a responsible manner, respecting the rights of others.

11. Use of workstations for illegal, actionable conduct or to seek access to unauthorised areas is prohibited.

12. RDPL assumes no responsibility for any direct or indirect damages from the use of the library workstations.

13. Customers are responsible for all commercial transactions made while using the RDPL workstations.

14. Customers are responsible for any damages to RDPL computer.

15. Any attempts to change the configuration of RDPL computer equipment and or software may result in the loss of library privileges and/or criminal prosecution.

16. Any misuse of the RDPL Research connection may result in the loss of library privileges and/or criminal prosecution.

17. Customers must leave workstations immediately when asked by staff.
